

Senses

I hear their stories
I see their smile
I feel their touch
I smell the air
I taste the spice of life

Eyes unspoiled
Cool sensations
Echoes surround
Bitter, sweet
Sent enfuming

Together we see twice as much
Together discover it all
Together we hear the whole story
Together combining them all
Together we reach for the sky
